Nerve Slavery

It is present-day conditions—heaping burdens of work upon the nervous system that tells the story—premature breaking up of health.

It tells why so many men and women, who so far as age is concerned, should be in the prime of health, find themselves letting go of the strength, the power, the vitality they once possessed. It is because that great motor power of the body, nerve force, is impaired. Neither will the heart, the brain, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach act right without their proper nerve force supply. Let any organ be lacking in this essential and troubles begin—some of them are:

THREE OIL GIANTS

Rockefeller, Rothschild and Nobel Are Said to Have Combined.

A GREAT WORLD TRUST

Oil Kings Are Reported From London to Have Designed On Russian Exporters.

The Latter Have Accepted the Gage and a Gigantic Fight Is On.

London, July 30.—In its issue of this morning the Daily Mail declares there is no longer any doubt that the three monster oil interests of Rockefeller, Rothschild and Nobel have entered into a working agreement.

"This," says the paper, "without any publicity the greatest trust the world has ever seen has sprung into being."

"This combination," says the paper, "has been hinted at in messages from Batoum and Moscow, and it has been clearly shown in the offers made to Russian oil exporters by representatives of the Nobel and Rothschild interests for the absorption of the whole of their output. The exporters have been forbidden to sell through the agencies of these interests at a price arranged by them, or to fight the combined forces of the three oil giants. This offer was made openly and with the idea of maintaining prices, and it has been refused, the Russian exporters preferring to fight. It was doubtless this combine which induced the Russian government to issue invitations to an anti-trust conference. The spokesmen of the great combine declare it means a fight to the death and that the independent exporters cannot hope to win."

QUIETING DOWN

School Troubles In France Over the Acute Stage.

Paris, July 30.—The agitation in connection with the circular issued by Premier Combes with regard to the closing of the unauthorized congregationalist schools has considerably abated, even in Brittany, owing to the circumstance that none of the recalcitrant schools will be forcibly closed until special decrees to this end have been signed for each department. In many departments such action will not be necessary, as the congregationalists have submitted, and moreover the decision of the government not to close those schools for which authorization was not asked owing to misinterpretation of the law, has had something of a quieting effect.

The leaders of the agitation still talk of organizing popular protests; but the life seems to be out of the movement so far as Paris is concerned. Here the Socialists have determined upon counter demonstrations to every clerical meeting. Some disturbances in the provinces, especially in Finisterre, are probable when the police close the schools, but there is evidently a lull in the excitement for the moment.

Big Coal Deal.

Litchfield, Ills., July 30.—What is probably the largest single coal deal in the history of the Illinois coal field has just been consummated in the northern part of Montgomery and Macoupin counties. A. G. Simpson of New York, representing an Eastern syndicate with a capital of $1,500,000, has secured options on the coal under 25,000 acres of land in one body and is attempting to secure about 5,000 more. The options are at the rate of $17.50 an acre and will expire by limitation on Oct. 1, 1902. If coal is found in paying quantities every land owner will receive his money on or before that date.

Boiler Let Go.

Centuria, Ills., July 30.—A boiler in a flour mill at Salem exploded yesterday, killing Engineer P. L. Lefter and wrecking the mill. A Baltimore and Ohio passenger train had just pulled into the station and was badly damaged and the passengers were panic-stricken.

Mail's Hove.

Lamport, N. D., July 30.—Latest reports from the district hailed out estimates that 40,000 acres of wheat are almost a total loss, while much more will show from one-quarter to one-half destroyed.

THEY ARE WORRIED

Indiana Democrats Disturbed Over Mr. Bryan's Actions

Indianapolis, July 30.—"Will Bryan come to Indiana without being asked?" If the Democratic leaders could answer that question to their own satisfaction, they would feel more secure. It is certain now that he will not be asked by the organization to make any speeches, as the kind of speeches he makes would not be acceptable to the party management. But the fact that Bryan is making a tour now through the New England states is causing much apprehension in Indiana. Who knows but that he may stop off in Indiana to find out a few things for himself? It is evident from the tone of his editorial utterances that he is not particularly well pleased with the slight the state convention gave him, or that T. Taggart attended the Tilden club harmony dinner in New York and told how the Democratic party in Indiana was "coming to." The party leaders would feel much safer if Bryan would stick to his own bailiwick at Lincoln, Neb., and edit his little paper. They know that he still has a large following in Indiana that at a signal from him might rebel and give the reorganizers much trouble. If he should come to the state, invited or uninvited, the leaders who are in the saddle fear the effect on the fall elections, as he might alienate the men who are coming back to the fold. So until he is at home again there will be worry in the camp of the Democratic chieftains of Indiana. The state committee, it is learned, is beginning to send out literature to voters, but it is not of a Bryanistic color. In fact, everything pertaining closely to the two disastrous campaigns of 1896 and 1900 is being kept as much in the background as possible. The leaders are doing their best, but confidence is expressed by the Republican organization that the Democrats will not be able to get together in time to make much serious trouble this year.

Figures are always interesting to politicians campaign year, so statistics of the last election are now being overhauled for a basis of calculating the probable outcome of the coming fall elections. In the 1900 campaign the highest vote received by Republican presidential electors was 336,963. The highest vote of the Democratic presidential electors was 309,584; Prohibitionist, 13,718; Social Democrat, 2,374; Populist, 1,438; Socialist Labor, 663. Politicians are a unit almost in predicting that the vote this year will not be as large by 25,000 or 30,000, and it may fall off more. Neither the Democrats nor the Republicans expect to poll as large a vote as in 1900. The Prohibition is the only party that has ground for expecting a larger vote, as there are many who vote the prohibition ticket in an off year, for the sake of principle, who vote with one of the big parties in presidential campaigns. The Prohibition leaders know this and are consequently making a more vigorous campaign than ever. The Social Democrats, it is believed, are losing ground, while there is nothing to indicate that the Pops, since they have cut loose from the Democrats, have any reason to feel confident of increasing their strength. The Socialist Labor vote is not a factor, and it will be surprising if it is more than 1,000 this year.

It is believed that another era of development of the interurban road is at hand, although the interurban is a comparatively new factor in Indiana. George F. McCulloch, president of the Union Traction, says he is thinking of establishing a parlor car service over his lines. He already has what he calls the "limited" between Indianapolis, Anderson and Muncie, and the public has taken to this service the same as they did a few years ago to the rapid flyers of the steam roads. But McCulloch proposes to put on traveling palaces that will be still faster and more attractive than the "limited." Recently the president of another big company that is operating the Greenfield line, which is eventually to be extended to Richmond, Ind., and Dayton, O., announced that his company would put on sleepers between Indianapolis and Dayton when the line is finished. So the chances are that it will not be long before interurban parlor, sleeping and even dining cars are a reality in Indiana.

Vicious Murderer

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 30.—While sitting on the steps in the rear of his home here yesterday, Mrs. Dena Hubelhorst, a widow 53 years of age, was shot in the stomach by her brother-in-law, Martin Hubelhorst, with a shotgun. Hubelhorst had boarded with his sister-in-law, but had been turned out because of drunkenness. When arrested Hubelhorst was told his victim was dead. He said he was glad of it; that she ought to have been dead a long time ago.

Both Were Burned.

Scranton, Kan., July 30.—M. E. Gidson, McDowell was burned to death and her invalid husband was fatally burned three miles southwest of here yesterday. The aged woman's dress caught fire while she was leading her husband from their house, which was burning. She started for assistance but soon fainted and died before neighbors arrived. McDowell was burned while making a feeble effort to save his wife.

He Knows Better Now.

Franklin, Ind., July 30.—E. A. Clark recently purchased a patent lamp of a traveling agent, signing an order for payment on delivery. The order turned up for $700. Clark got out with a compromise.

MEANS BUSINESS

Commander McCrea Takes a Hand In Affairs at Cape Haytian.

HE CALLS 'EM TO TIME

The Commander of the Machias Tells Belligerents a Thing Or Two for Information.

One of these Is That Bombardment Without Notice Will Start Serious Trouble.

Washington, July 30.—The navy department has received a cablegram from Commander McCrea of the gunboat Machias lying at Cape Haytian, giving the information that he had taken the foreign consuls stationed in Hayti on board for their protection during the present disturbed condition of things on the island, and had served notice upon the Haytian gunboat alongshore that a bombardment of the city without due notice to non-combatants would not be permitted. The state department has no hesitation in fully approving the energetic and sufficient action of Commander McCrea in taking care of the foreign consuls and in preventing a bombardment without warning. The American and foreign interests in Cape Haytian are large, and an American captain is required by the unwritten law to look after the life and property of other foreign residents as well as Americans in such cases. It is said that the rules of international law, as well as the dictates of humanity require that proper notice be given before a bombardment in order that women, children and non-combatants may leave the town and carry off their personal belongings.

The navy department feels that the Machias is sufficiently large for the work at hand at this point, though if there were more such small American gunboats in the gulf and Caribbean sea, a quieting and restraining influence would be exerted over those frequent rebellious outbreaks, involving violations of the rules of war and great suffering. However, there is no naval vessel save those now actually engaged in such service as the Machias within 1,800 miles of the various seats of trouble in Central and South America and the West Indies. The Machias is a vessel of 1,177 tons, carrying eight 4-inch rapid-fire guns and a crew of eleven officers and 143 men. While not many men could be spared for a landing party, the vessel undoubtedly could lie in the anchorage and cover the town with her guns. It is not believed that there is the slightest danger of an attack upon her by any of the Haytian gunboats, loyal or rebel.

Determined to Die.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 30.—Charles Preble, a prominent farmer and stockman residing near Lanham, Neb., made three attempts at suicide yesterday before succeeding. He first tried to shoot himself through the heart, but the bullet, the last one in the revolver, failed to strike a vital spot. He then leaped into a 50-foot well, but was taken out by a relative. Later on he took the rope from the well and hung himself from a rafter in the barn. Heavy floods which ruined hundreds of acres of his crops, causing him heavy losses, is responsible for the act.

River Pirates Captured.

Metropolis, Ills., July 30.—A band of river thieves who have been operating all along the Ohio river for weeks and taking everything in the way of boats and rafting equipment which they could find, were captured near here yesterday, hidden in a clump of willows near the edge of an island. A yellow skiff which they had not entirely hidden disclosed their hiding place. They made a bold resistance and several shots were exchanged between them and their captors. They are now in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

Lured to Her Death.

Chicago, July 30.—The woman who was found strangled to death in the winery of a saloon on Wells street was identified last night by James Stewart, a Lake Forest contractor, as his wife, from whom he became separated in a crowd on a downtown street. Stewart's story strengthens the belief of the police that the woman was lured to the saloon and robbed.

Two More Victims.

Springfield, Ills., July 30.—Two more victims of footpads in this city have been heard from, George Pfiffer and John P. Greene, both of Albert Lea, Wis. Pfiffer claims he lost $665 at a race on July 15 and Greene says he lost $5,000. Deputy Sheriff Ryan wired Pfiffer and Greene to come here on Thursday and help prosecute. They wired that they would come.

Asserts His Innocence.

Denver, Col., July 30.—Chas. Green, alias Charles Thomas, seventeen years of age, wanted at Buffalo, N. Y., on the charge of having participated in the murder of Austin J. Crowe on June 28, was arrested here yesterday. Green admitted his identity, but asserts his innocence. John Doyle, wanted on the same charge, was with Green, but escaped.

DAY FIXED

Formal Announcement of King Edward's Coronation.

London, July 30.—The latest and most reliable information indicates that King Edward's coronation will not be mistaken in fixing Aug. 9 as the date upon which his majesty could be crowned. The sinister rumors which have pervaded all classes for the last few days now appear to have lost that semblance of probability which made even the members of the cabinet nervous lest another postponement of the coronation might be necessitated. Those who drew inferences from the fact that the invitations to Westminster Abbey were not dated have had their fears dissipated by the proclamation published in the Gazette last night fixing Aug. 9 as the date for the coronation, which postdates and is altogether more important than anything which might or might not have appeared upon the cards of invitations. According to the present arrangements King Edward and Queen Alexandra will leave Cowes either Aug. 6 or Aug. 8 for Buckingham palace, and will return to the royal yacht Aug. 18, when the entire fleet will pass before King Edward and salute him, thus making a second naval review. After his return to the yacht the king is expected to take an extended cruise to the northward and subsequently to spend some weeks at Balmoral, where preparations for the arrival of their majesties have already been commenced.

Bandits Sentenced.

Tunis, July 30.—The trial of the assassins of the Marquis de Mores at Susa, near here, resulted yesterday in the condemning to death of El Kheir and the sentencing of Hama Chiekh to twenty years' imprisonment. The Marquis de Mores was killed near Gabes in June, 1896, by a number of bandits. El Kheir and Hama Chiekh were the only ones of his assailants captured. His widow, who was Marie Vonhoffman, daughter of L. Vonhoffman of New York, offered a reward of 5,000 francs for the arrest of the principal assassin. Seventeen others accused of the assassination were sentenced in default, six to be put to death and eleven to hard labor.

STATE NEWS NOTES

Incidents and Accidents and Doings of Note Throughout Hoosierdom.

A PERMANENT EXHIBIT

Indiana Photographic Association Has Set On Foot An Interesting Movement.

First Photographic Art Salon In the World Projected For Winona Lake.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 30.—Officers of the Indiana Photographers' association and National Secretary C. R. Reeves of Anderson, who leave this week for the national convention at Buffalo, will interest the photographers of the country in the project of the Indiana association to erect the first permanent photographic art salon in the world at this point. The committee appointed by the Indiana photographers at their meeting this summer to canvass for funds for founding such an institution and the erection of a permanent home and summer school at this point, has met with great success. The national association will not be asked for financial support, but to contribute framed copies of its prize pictures annually to the international collection that is to be preserved here. A similar request is to be made of all state, interstate and international associations.

INDIANA AT SHILOH

Preparations Making For Dedication of Regimental Markers.

Indianapolis, July 30.—The dedication of the Indiana monuments on the Shiloh battlefield may take place the second week in September. That is the date contemplated in the tentative arrangements. The commission hopes there will be a large enough attendance at the dedication to warrant low rates.

Governor Durbin will be accompanied by members of his staff and other state officials. Governor McMillan of Tennessee, and staff, will be present, and it is thought that Secretary Root of the department of war may also attend.

The Indiana party will go from here to Louisville, thence to Nashville, Tenn., by rail, where a Tennessee river packet will be taken for the remainder of the journey. The river trip will require a day and a night. Twenty-one monuments will be dedicated.

Filipino Dressed Up.

Newcastle, Ind., July 30.—Captain Omar Bundy and wife, who have returned from the Philippines, have with them a native, who, owing to his long name, has been christened "Tom." He is a good specimen of his people, and attracts attention here, Captain Bundy having dressed him in the height of fashion. Captain Bundy and wife are visiting their parents here.

Puzzles the Doctors.

Hartford City, Ind., July 30.—Louis Coate, living four miles west of town, was moving a wagon bed with the aid of his son. He was under the vehicle, while the boy had a 2x4 scantling with which he was lifting and prying. The wagon bed slipped and the end of the scantling struck Coate in the throat. He has lost his voice and doctors are puzzled.

Knocked From Pole.

Jasper, Ind., July 30.—Yesterday while Gus Salb, son of Dr. J. P. Salb of this place was making a fastening of telephone wires at the top of a pole, the wire was struck by lightning and he was knocked from the pole to the ground. He was brought here unconscious. His recovery is probable.

ON THE WING

President Mitchell Will Address Miners' "Locals."

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 30.—President Mitchell will start this week to fill engagements he has to deliver addresses before United Mine Workers' assemblies in different parts of the anthracite region. Ever since Mr. Mitchell established his headquarters in Wilkesbarre he has been besieged by committees from various "locals" who wanted him to name a date on which he could deliver an address. Owing to press of other matters, the chief of the United Mine Workers had to decline all such invitations. But now that he finds that he has a little time to spare he will try and fulfill some of his engagements. It is said he will visit the Schuylkill region first and deliver addresses at Shenango and Mahony City.

National Member John Fallon reports that the men are satisfied with the relief plan as carried out in the Wyoming region. The first installment of the relief fund was not large and succor could be given to only the most destitute cases. But President Mitchell says when the money received from the assessment levied on the bituminous miners comes in there will be easier sailing for all concerned. Mr. Mitchell desires to say that there is no truth in the report that he stated to a committee of merchants who waited on him that there would be no more money to distribute among the strikers until Aug. 1. He claims contributions will be received right along from miners organizations and other labor unions.

A crowd of 1,500 men and boys prevented the resumption of work at the Wanke washery at Duryea yesterday. A number of men came down from Scranton to work at the washery. They were at once surrounded by a threatening crowd. The burgess was appealed to to protect the men who wanted to work, but he thought he would not be able to do it and he telephoned to Sheriff Jacobs. The sheriff sent four deputies to the scene, but when they arrived the mob had dispersed. The men who had been hired to work at the washery were badly frightened, and when the train for Scranton came along they jumped aboard and returned to that place. A volley of stones followed them. The operator of the washery says he will not make another attempt to resume operations.

MINERS' BLACKLIST

It Is Charged That This Club Was Held Over Men.

Charleston, W. Va., July 30.—One of the points which was brought in the trial of John Richards and others in the federal court here before Judge Keller yesterday is that Richards threatened to blacklist all miners who refused to come out and join the strikers. When Richards was speaking to a crowd and the working miners were listening, he turned to the working miners and pleaded with them to quit work and said that when the strike was over and the union had been recognized, which it surely would be, they would not be able to work in any section of the country. He told them he had a list of all their names and it would be furnished to every local union in the country, and wherever they went they would be pointed to as scabs and would not be allowed to earn a living.

This point was emphasized as much as the prosecution could emphasize it, so that it could be shown to the court that the organization which is opposed to a blacklist by the employer, proposes to maintain a blacklist among those of its craft. The speech was taken by the stenographer of the Collins colliery company and the transcript was submitted in the court yesterday.

"I sleep well enough at night, And the blindest appetite Ever mortal man possessed."

Riley's farmer is the very picture of a man advanced in years, yet in the enjoyment of perfect health. A good appetite, good digestion and sound sleep, are the chief factors in a vigorous old age. Life is sustained by food, when it is properly digested and assimilated. When digestion fails, there is a loss of nutrition which soon shows itself in physical weakness, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures the diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the body in the only way possible,—by enabling the assimilation of the nutrition extracted from food.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 125 pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A RESTORATION BEAU.

Daily Programme of a Dandy in England During Charles' Time.

The history of an ordinary day of a restoration beau was something like this: From about 10 till 12 he received visitors in his sleeping chamber, where he lay in state, with his periwig, thickly powdered, lying beside him on the coverlet. Near at hand, on his dressing table, the curious visitor might have noticed some little volumes of amatory verse, a canister of Lisbon or Spanish snuff, a smelling bottle and perhaps a few fashionable trinkets.

As soon as he deemed proper the beau arose and with incredible difficulty proceeded to put on all his charms, to perfume his garments, to soak his hands in washes for the sake of producing whiteness and delicacy, to tinge his cheeks with carmine in order to give them that gentle blush which nature had denied them, to arrange a number of patches upon his face so as to produce the effect of moles and dimples, to dip his pocket handkerchief in rosewater and to powder his linen so as to banish from it the smell of soap, to consume a quarter of an hour in the attempt to fasten his cravat, so long again in the endeavor to adjust his wig and to "cock" his hat, as long again in the contemplation of his charms in the looking glass and as long again in the practice of such smiles as would display to the best advantage the ivory whiteness of his teeth—these were the processes through which he who desired to figure as a beau of the first magnitude was compelled in that age to pass.

The character of the beau, so far as his outward and personal appearance was concerned, was now complete, and as in those days fashionable gentlemen used their legs to a much less extent than they do now our imaginary beau would have directed his valet to order a sedan chair without delay. Into this he stepped and was borne to the fashionable haunt—to the mall in St. James park or perhaps to the more ceremonious parade in Hyde park—where, like a butterfly, he delighted to flutter in the train of some jilting beauty, who gloried in nothing so much as "an equipage of fools" and who was perfectly willing for the nonce to furnish him with an excuse for toasting her in a tavern at night—Gentleman's Magazine.

Quite Amicable.

"Why did you quit your job? Did you have a disagreement with the boss?"
"Oh, no; not at all. I told him I had to have more money or I would quit, and he said it was mutually satisfactory."—Indianapolis News.

THE TENT MEETINGS.

Excellent Service in the Big Tent Last Night, and Attendance Large.

The Smiley Union Revival Meetings, begun on Sunday afternoon under the most discouraging circumstances, and continued on Monday with similar disheartening conditions, received an impetus last night that must have greatly cheered those in charge. Long before the hour for beginning the meeting streams of people were flowing that way. By eight o'clock hundreds had turned away, unable to get in, and many were grouped in the street outside the tent. Efforts are making to increase the capacity of the tent. Already the side has been torn out of the large structure south of it to give hundreds the shelter of the roof. Tonight it will be lighted.

The Evangelist developed great strength last night, and his magnificent sermon on Ezekiel and the Valley of Dry Bones, full of humor, pathos and local allusions gripped the great audience mightily. Considered as the practical beginning of the TENT meetings, it made a splendid start.

The music also was all that could have been desired. Besides the superb singing of Mr. McKensie and of the large choir he is handling so well, a male quartette rendered a good selection.

The morning meetings at 9:30 are well attended and for christian people the most helpful ones. Mr. Smiley is showing himself a most skillful expositor of Bible truth and a most enthusiastic and lucid teacher. The people are enjoying his morning addresses on the teachings of Jesus as found in the Sermon on the Mount. They are having a good time, and he is, too, evidently, and the personal sallies and pungent sayings of the quick-witted evangelist are delicious condiments to the real salad and nourishing food he serves.

A prayer circle has been organized of several hundred people in all parts of the city, to pray at exactly twelve o'clock, noon, for the meetings and those conducting them. Each day many are added to the circle.

The meetings are to continue ten days or two weeks yet. The church bells all over the city are hereafter to ring at the hours of service.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at The Peter Drug Co. SURGICAL OPERATIONS

How Mrs. Bruce, a Noted Opera Singer, Escaped an Operation. Proof That Many Operations for Ovarian Troubles are Unnecessary.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Travelling for years on the road, with irregular meals and sleep and damp beds, broke down my health so completely two years ago that the physician advised a complete rest, and when I had gained sufficient vitality, an operation for ovarian troubles. Not a very cheerful prospect, to be sure. I, however, was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash; I did so, fortunately for me. Before a month had passed I felt that my general health had improved; in three months more I was cured, and I have been in perfect health since. I did not lose an engagement or miss a meal.

"Your Vegetable Compound is certainly wonderful, and well worthy the praise your admiring friends who have been cured are ready to give you. I always speak highly of it, and you will admit I have good reason to do so."—MRS. G. BRUCE, Lansing, Mich. $5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

The fullest counsel on this subject can be secured without cost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be entirely confidential.
